

LITURGICAL SCHEDULE FOR HOLY WEEK

The reign of life has begun, the tyranny of death is ended...

This is the day the Lord has made—a day far different from those made when the world was first created, and which are measured by the passage of time. This is the beginning of a new creation.

- St. Gregory of Nyssa (384)

We arrive at Holy Week and we are called to spiritually walk with Christ into Jerusalem, to the Mystical Supper, to His betrayal, passion, and crucifixion, and finally, His glorious Resurrection!
