

Annunciation Endowment Fund (AEF)
Scholarship Program
2020 Policies and Procedures

The Endowment Fund of the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation has established a scholarship award program for qualified High School graduates who have been accepted to and will enroll in an accredited college or university, a community college, or an accredited/licensed vocational school. The award is intended for students entering one of these institutions for the first time. Up to three scholarships of $2500 will be awarded each year.

PURPOSE:

To encourage active participation in church, school and civic activities and to foster an attitude of Christian love, responsibility and service to others.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be of the Orthodox faith. Applicant and/or family must be members in good standing of any of the Greek Orthodox parishes in the greater Sacramento area. At present, this includes Annunciation in Sacramento, St. Katherine in Elk Grove, and St. Anna in Roseville.

The main requirements of successful candidates will be to demonstrate active participation in church worship and social activities, school extra-curricular activities and civic activities.

Applicants must have a high school GPA of at least 2.5 through the 1st term of their senior year.

SELECTION OF CANDIDATES:

The Scholarship Award Committee will consist of three people. One of the AEF representatives shall server as the Administrator of the Selection Committee and shall not participate in the actual selection process. Only the Administrator shall know the applicants' names, having redacted all identifying information. Each applicant will be given a number by the Administrator who will keep the identifying information. Applicants' names shall not be revealed to the other members of the committee until after they have selected the recipients. The review and selection process, as well as the contents of the applications, will remain confidential.

The AEF Board will appoint two AEF representatives and each shall serve a two-year term. The first year, one AEF representative shall be appointed to a one-year term and one shall be appointed to a two-year term to provide continuity in future years. A third person shall be selected by the AEF Board from the greater Sacramento Community, and shall be asked to serve a two-year term.
