A LETTER FROM FATHER JAMES

My beloved Annunciation Church family,

To everything there is a season,
A time for every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up; (Ecclesiastes 3)

There is a Jewish tradition that King Solomon wrote Ecclesiastes at an advanced age, and while I don't think of myself as old, these words resound with me as I share with you Presbyteria Barbara's and my decision for me to retire as Proistamenos of Annunciation, effective November 1, 2024.

It has been my singular joy and privilege to work with and serve you the faithful of Annunciation these past nineteen years, celebrating the joys and sorrows we share in Christ. It has indeed been a fulfillment of His promise: "I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." (John 10:10) You have filled my Priestly vocation with abundant joy in so many ways and I thank God for you.

However, it is now time (kairos!) for a younger man to continue the Apostolic work of our Church, and for me to yield to him the privilege and honor to serve the One High Priest, our Lord, God and Savior Jesus Christ as your Priest, for: "According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ." (1 Cor 3:9-11).

So let us now fervently pray for Father Vincent Minucci to serve you and work together for a smooth transition of leadership, for as St. Paul reminds us: "we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God who tests our hearts." (1 Thessalonians 2:4)

With love in Christ,

Father James

THANK YOU, FATHER JAMES

PASTORAL MESSAGE

Our Sexual Selves

A casual observer would say that the Orthodox Church is old fashioned or even “antique.” After all, look at our worship services, our music, the way our Priests dress. I think it might be more accurate to describe us as “conservative.” We do change. Slowly. We used Greek, but now in this country we also use English because we live in an English-speaking country. We have electricity and indoor plumbing. You might say we are cautious about change. Do we really want the Church to be “trendy”? Frankly, trendy is often undirected and perhaps even hazardous. Our culture is ready to experiment with things without any clear idea of either short- or long-term effects. For example, the world’s plastic pollution. Plastic seemed like such a good idea in the 1950’s.

For years now, Christian Churches have been waging a losing battle with the shifting sexual standards of our culture. Along with most Western countries, America experienced the so-called “sexual revolution” in the 1960’s when young people and then society as a whole began to redefine sexual morality. In the years that followed that turbulence, we learned that being sexually “free” came with risks that might include death. Now we no longer talk about “free love” but “safe sex” and, of course, “sexual abuse” and “sexual exploitation.” The “gay liberation” movement began in 1969, and now our society talks about non-binary sexuality and transgender identities as if somehow these notions/identities are “natural” and have always been around.

A trend that grew out of this sexual revolution increasingly disturbs us Priests and hopefully disturbs you. It is the casual cohabitation of unmarried young people, usually but not always young people who plan to be married. Somehow the message has gotten out that if you love someone and are thinking about marrying him or her, then it is okay if you have sex and okay if you live together. If you have gotten that message, it has not come from the Church. The Church’s expectation has always been that couples, even engaged couples, remain apart and celibate until they marry. There are plenty of couples who do struggle to remain chaste, but the trend is increasingly going the other way. It puts us in a very difficult position because we care deeply about the couples who come to us, and we want them to get married in the Church, but we do not want to support decisions that the Church (read “God”) regards as sinful. It is especially difficult for us when one partner is Orthodox and the other is not, and that is more and more common. The Orthodox partner has completely failed to uphold what is supposed to be their own sexual standard. How do we talk to them? Where is the common ground? Common moral ground does not exist in our culture anymore, and increasingly even the Orthodox partner is somehow ignorant of what the Church expects. I suspect that part of our problem here also derives from the identical lamentable trend in Greece. Couples live together and have a wedding and reception when the first baby is baptized.

Part of our problem here also derives from wide-spread ignorance of what God says to us in Scripture. Do you read Scripture? The Bible has some clear statements about sex. Realize that we humans must adopt some standard of sexual behavior. We cannot just do whatever occurs to us. We would get into serious trouble. The crucial question is this: Whose standards do we take? Our own idiosyncratic standards? The ever-changing standards of our “trendy” culture? Or God’s standards? If we want to be Christians, we need to take the last option. Let me summarize the Traditional, Orthodox, Biblical, Christian standard for sexual morality this way: God expects all of us to practice sexual self-control. God tells us to be “chaste.” God allows most of us to get married, and God blesses sex in marriage. Sex outside of marriage is always sinful; that is, it does not conform to God’s expectations. God never tells us indulgently “You kids just do whatever feels good.” God is a Father who cares about how we behave, and He knows what is good for us. Read the Apostle Paul’s argument in his first letter to the Corinthians, chapters 5 through 7. Bear in mind that he is writing to people living in a very sensual culture. That is a bit of the theology. Let me be practical. There are some reasons why it is potentially dangerous to “move in” with someone. There is always family or peer disapproval or the embarrassment of an “unplanned” pregnancy. (Remember that the Church regards abortion as murder.) Beyond this, there is the problem that sex functions very well to strengthen a relationship. When you have sex with someone, you will likely form a bond with that person. If you “get physical” too soon, your critical faculties are going to get short-circuited! You run the risk of, as one team of family therapists have phrased it, “sliding” into the most important relationship in your life instead of purposefully and deliberately “deciding” on the relationship. “Living together” without the commitment of marriage is also dangerous because a high percentage of those live-in relationships do not survive. The overall divorce rate of 40 to 50% in our country is high in contrast to the rest of the world (although it seems overall to be dropping a bit). The failure rate for live in’s (admittedly harder to track) is estimated to be upwards of 90%! “Breaking up” is not as traumatic as divorce, but it is still painful and leaves emotional scars. Why put yourself through that? I have a theory that we human beings can successfully endure a limited number of “breakups.” Living together before marriage will not make your marriage more successful or enduring. In fact, recent research indicates that couples who cohabit prior to marriage experience more distress in marriage and have more risk for divorce! Why “play house”? If you truly love someone and he or she is a Christian and would make a good spouse, then why not just get married?

By the way, if you are living with someone or just having sex with someone to whom you are not married, do not come for Holy Communion! Serious persistent sin renders us “unworthy” of Communion. The Apostle Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 11: “Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord. Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves. For this reason, many of you are weak and ill, and some have died.” Pray that God will help you regularize your relationship. If you need advice, call us.

God is not trying to frustrate us or keep an important fulfilling experience from us. He wants the best for us, and the very best is sex within a loving, committed marriage relationship with someone who loves you exclusively. If you want to be a Christian, Christ comes to you (and me) and asks us for everything, all our thoughts, our desires, our bodies. In return, Christ offers us everything. He offers us Himself and the prospect of eternal life in His Kingdom. On behalf of the Lord Jesus, His Holy Church, myself and every other Priest in our Church, on behalf of all the Saints throughout the years who have made heroic efforts to live in chastity and keep themselves pure in and out of marriage, please take this to heart! If you have questions, please come talk to us. Think about this. If you need to come in for Confession, please call us. The Lord Jesus loves you! We sincerely love you, and we are not here to judge you. We only want the very best for you.

In Christ,

Fr. Timothy

LETTER FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

At the end of every year, we often reflect on the previous year and what may come in the new year. This year, we at Annunciation also get to do this in a parish context with the retirement of Fr. James Retelas and the appointment of Fr. Vincent (Vinnie) Minucci. The change in our parish's proistamenos only happens every 20 years or so. Nineteen years ago, Fr. James succeeded Fr. Dogias (of blessed memory) as Annunciation's proistamenos, with Fr. Dogias serving 24 years as Annunciation's proistamenos.

Do we remember what the world was like 20 years ago? What do we think the world will be like 20 years from now? What do we want our parish to be like in 20 years? What do we, as Orthodox Christians, want our city, our country, and our world to be like in 20 years? We, as parishioners and Orthodox Christians, should not just think about these last two questions, but accept them as a challenge. We should challenge ourselves (and each other) to continue growing this parish, our faith within this parish, and our faith beyond this parish. We have all the people, facilities, resources, ministries, and the faith; we just have to act.

In closing, I'd like to welcome Fr. Vinnie, Presbyteria Nadia, and their two sons (Sami and Gabriel) to Annunciation. We are excited to have you as part of our parish family. Additionally, I'd like to congratulate Fr. James for his 19 years of service here at Annunciation and close with an anecdote. During the swearing-in of parish council members in 2023, Fr. James asked this rhetorical question: "Is the parish your universe or is the universe your parish?" Let us consider this question as this parish enters into a new era with a new proistamenos.

Wishing you all a wonderful Christmas and holiday season.

In Christ,

RJ Hansen
Parish Council Secretary

PHILOPTOCHOS

Philoptochos News

Blessings in a Backpack:

The members of Annunciation's Philoptochos want to thank our parishioners for contributing to the Blessings in a Backpack fund to purchase and fill 120 backpacks with school supplies for children who attend the Leataata Floyd Elementary School. Most of the student body lives in the public housing complex across the street from the school that is named after Mrs. Floyd, a beloved member of the community who lived in this low-income housing complex for over 40 years. She advocated for the improvement of the housing complex and volunteered her time at the school coaching and mentoring students. This year, $570 was collected in one month from our parish's coffee hour donations, and $380 was donated separately to Blessings in a Backpack. We were able to purchase backpacks, college ruled notebooks, pens, pencils, glue sticks and more, that covered all our expenses for Blessings in a Backpack. Your donations are a blessing!

As Philoptochos members, we try to help families and causes that assist those in need. We want to thank those individuals, families and members of Philoptochos who have sponsored Sunday coffee fellowship where we are able to ask parish members to help with Blessings in Backpack, Baskets for the Homebound, Mustard Seed, Wellspring Women's Center, Women's Empowerment, the Sacramento Food Bank, and our Homeless Charities. The dollars we collect also make it easier for us to supplement our charitable obligations, and those emergency requests that are not budgeted.

Please consider sponsoring a coffee fellowship in memory of your loved ones or "just because" it is a time to enjoy visiting with family and friends. You can contact Donna Wagner @ 916-214-9794, or you can also schedule memorial prayers, in Church, with Effie Theodor, and sponsor a coffee fellowship at the same time. You can contact Effie @ (916) 443-2033 ext. 222.

Whether coffee fellowship sponsors are hosting in memory of loved ones or "just because", the members of Philoptochos want to thank you for your generosity and your support of Philoptochos and our charities.

SACRAMENTO GREEK FESTIVAL

It's September 5, as I'm sitting at my computer writing this, about a month before the festival. This time last year, I was mildly anxious about the extensive list of things to do while writing a missive imploring my fellow parishioners to underwrite festival foodstuffs, become a sponsor, and to volunteer to set up, work a booth, or to tear down the festival. This year, while still mildly anxious, I'm writing a preemptive thank you note that will be published after our festival.

Thank you for volunteering at our 61st Annual Greek Festival!

Please see the photos of hardworking pastry making volunteers.

Thank you for your support in underwriting and sponsoring our festival!

Please see the donor list (current at time of printing.)

Thank you for spending countless hours toiling in hot kitchens, cold freezers, at the tilt brazier or a deep fryer, stocking your booth, or any of the other volunteer positions needed before, during, and after our festival.

Please see the 2024 Festival Chairpeople.

Our festival is a success because of your help. You are truly appreciated!

More details and photos of our great Festival will be forthcoming in future Observer articles.

Respectfully,

Stefanie Hionis for the 2024 Greek Festival Board: Stefanie Hionis, Chris Georgoulis, George Chuchas, Emily Coleman, Michael Dariotis, Dan Eriksson, Helen Grammatitakis, Julie Mamalis, & Demetri Romas

(Oh, what's that you say? You didn't donate or volunteer this year. You're in luck! Through November 1st, donations can still be made our website: <http://sacramentogreekfestival.com/sponsors>. Prep for festival 2025 will begin after Easter. We'll see you there!)

ANNUNCIATION VOLLEYBALL

ANNUNCIATION VOLLEYBALL ST. NICHOLAS VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT SAN JOSE • OCTOBER 18-20, 2024

We had a fun weekend at the volleyball tournament in San Jose! It was a great competition and our teams represented our church very well. Our Junior GOYA team got third place!

We would like to express our appreciation and gratitude to the Annunciation Endowment Fund for their continued support for this special ministry!

ANNUNCIATION HISTORICAL SOCIETY

H H

Our Annunciation's HISTORICAL SOCIETY's mission is to preserve and celebrate the rich history and traditions of the Greeks in the Sacramento region. Our first project is writing a small book highlighting the Greeks in the greater Sacramento area. (Similar books have been written about the Greeks in Phoenix, San Francisco, and Chicago.)

Historical photographs are essential and we would appreciate your help in finding interesting pictures. Do you have any good pictures you think we could use? These could depict agriculture, formation of the parish, social events, business, politics, culture, art, celebrations, armed forces, social life and sports --- all focusing on the Greeks in and around Sacramento.

Please look through your old family photos. If you have any relevant photographs you'd like to share for possible inclusion in our book, please speak with any of the society's members or contact Bill Triphon at btriphon@comcast.net.

Thank you.

Bill Triphon , Terry Kastanis, Jim Chuchas, Julie Mamalis,
Katerina Lagos, Maria Sampanis, and Antonia Chapralis

ANNUNCIATION BRIDGE-DOMINOES GROUP

Annunciation Bridge-Dominoes Group

Come join us! The Bridge Dominoes Group meets on the 4th Wednesday of the month in the Annunciation Hellenic Center 10:30am–2:00pm for game playing fun and fellowship. We have a no-host lunch break with a yummy dessert provided by the host for the month. Some experience is needed for Bridge. We will teach you our version of Mexican Train Dominoes within a few hands. No experience needed! No stress—just fun! For more information contact Sophia Evrigenis for Bridge and Liz Dokimos for Dominoes. Cell phone numbers are in the Church Directory or email:

Sophia Evrigenis: sophiage@sbcglobal.net, Liz Dokimos: lizdokimos@comcast.net.

ANNUNCIATION BOOKSTORE

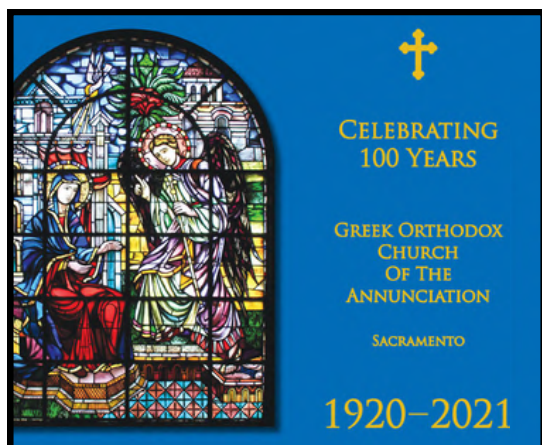

ANNUNCIATION BOOKSTORE NEWS

We've been busy sourcing new products in preparation for upcoming events and the Advent Season. Come by after liturgy and see what's new in gifts, jewelry, books and children's gifts. Some of our favorite items are:

- Natural stone bracelets with a little gold cross charm.
- Turquoise "Van Cleef style" cross with gold trim.
- Square edge stone crosses with gold edges in turquoise or white mother of pearl.
- Beautifully illustrated children's books.
- Nativity icons and other popular saints in gold leaf.
- Jerusalem Stone Comfort Cross - Each set includes two distinct crosses, one smooth and the other rough, symbolizing the dual nature of existence. The smooth cross, meant to be placed in the casket or urn with the departed, represents the serene peace experienced in heaven. The rough cross, remaining with the living, embodies the earthly challenges faced while preserving the memory of their beloved.

Save the date for these upcoming events:

- Christmas Tree Lane, November 19, 12:00 - 8:00 and November 20, 9:00 - 3:00. We will be offering an assortment of religious gift items to the general public as Jesuit High School brings this popular annual event to Annunciation's Hall, chaired by Christine Dariotis.
- Children's Shopping Spree, December 1 after liturgy: In the spirit of St Nickolas, all children enrolled in the Annunciation religious education program will be given the opportunity to shop for others. We will offer wonderful Christmas items priced from $1 - $10, gift wrapping included. Please send your kids to church this day with cash.

As a reminder,
our 100th Anniversary
Commemorative Album is available for purchase in our Annunciation Bookstore.
