PASTORAL MESSAGE

Beloved in the Lord,

As the colors of autumn unfold and the year begins its final turn, the rhythm of the Church calls us to something deeper— to slow down, to give thanks, and to renew our hearts in the presence of Christ. These last months of the year are a sacred bridge between gratitude and hope: we look back on what God has done, and we look forward to what He will yet reveal.

This time of year naturally turns our thoughts to Thanksgiving, not only for the blessings that are easy to see, but also for those quiet mercies that carry us through each day. I am profoundly grateful for the love that fills our Annunciation family— the generosity of our volunteers, the enthusiasm of our youth, the steady devotion of our ministries, and the kindness that defines our parish life.

Every act of service, every candle lit, every prayer whispered in this holy and blessed place adds to the beauty of what we share together in Christ.

With the coming of November, the Church invites us to enter the Nativity Fast. Far from being a burden, this is a time of gentle preparation, a season to make space for the Lord to dwell among us. While the world rushes toward Christmas with noise and distraction, the Church offers us the quiet path of prayer, fasting, and giving. In this way, we become like the shepherds who set aside their fears to follow the angel's song, and like the Theotokos, who received the Word of God with faith and humility. Through small, faithful steps, we too prepare a manger in our hearts where Christ may be born.

The miracle of Christmas is not only that God came once into the world, but that He continues to come— to be born in us, to transform us, to make our darkness shine. Each time we choose forgiveness over resentment, peace over worry, and generosity over indifference, we proclaim anew: “Christ is born, glorify Him!”

As we prepare to turn the page into 2026, may we do so with hearts renewed by faith and gratitude. The new year will bring its own challenges and blessings, but we face them together—with the strength of our community, the wisdom of our faith, and the love of Christ guiding our steps.

Let us carry forward the joy of the Nativity into every moment of the year ahead, trusting that whatever comes, God's light will continue to lead and sustain us.

With love in Christ,

+ Fr. Vinnie

LETTER FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

Dear Parish Family,

As the fall season arrives and the ecclesiastical year begins, the air grows cooler, the leaves change, and we begin to look ahead to the rich liturgical life that prepares us for the Nativity of Christ.

This season also brings opportunities for fellowship and service. I want to thank everyone who worked so diligently to make our 62nd Greek Festival a huge success. Your countless hours of baking, cooking, setting up, and welcoming close to 10,000 people reflect the true spirit of Greek Orthodox Christian hospitality. Not only was it a joyful event for our parish, but it also opened our doors to the greater Sacramento community, allowing many to experience our faith and traditions.

As we move forward, I encourage each of you to stay engaged—whether through attending church services, volunteering with our ministries, supporting our youth programs, or simply offering a kind word to a fellow parishioner. Your presence matters. Together, we build a strong parish rooted in love, faith, and unity.

On behalf of the Parish Council, I thank you for your continued support, stewardship, and prayers. May this fall season be one of spiritual growth and renewed commitment for us all.

With love in Christ,

Michael Dariotis Jr.
Parish Council President

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP 2025

"Give, and it shall be given unto you."

Luke 6:38

STEWARDSHIP FACTS

Q: DO MY RECURRING STEWARDSHIP PAYMENTS ROLLOVER FROM YEAR-TO-YEAR?

A: In past years, recurring stewardship payments have NOT rolled over to the next year and stewards were required to create new pledges and payments at the beginning of the year. For 2025, recurring payments from 2024 will continue on unless stopped by the giver. If you would like to check your 2025 stewardship status or make changes to your recurring payment, please login to your PushPay account at pushpay.com/login or contact the Annunciation Financial Office at accounting@annunciationsac.org.

Q: WHAT DOES MY STEWARDSHIP PAY FOR?

A: In 2025, it will cost approximately $3,500/day to keep the church open. Most operating expenses are paid from stewardship. Some examples are utilities, office staff and pastoral salaries, candles, permits, security, and facilities maintenance. Additional costs are directly related to church-funded ministries and programs.

Q: I ALREADY PAY FOR GREEK DANCE, GREEK SCHOOL, ETC. WHY DO I HAVE TO ALSO PAY FOR STEWARDSHIP?

A: These programs operate independently from our general operating budget. The church provides the facility, in addition to facility-related expenses, enabling their operation and receives no money from these ministries. It is also important that families participating in our children's ministries be currently pledged stewards.

Make your pledge online at annunciationsac.org/stewardship or return a pledge card to the Church Office

PHILOPTOCHOS

Philoptochos News

Philoptochos' Ecclesiastical Year began September 1, 2025, but our members have been busy throughout the summer electing Board and Executive Board members and collecting funds for backpacks and the Orthodox Christian Mission Center (OCMC). Your new 21-member Annunciation Board:

The Executive Board: Despina Demas, President; Nicolette Madrid, First Vice President; Effie Theodor, Second Vice President; Donna Wagner, Recording Secretary; Faye Vallas, Corresponding Secretary; Rula Manikas, Treasurer; Althea Tatarakis, First Asst Treasurer; Alexis Genung, Second Asst Treasurer; Anna Darzins, Social Services

Our Board Members: Elaine Wright (Advisor to Board) and Marika Tsardoulis (Family and Society Representative); Christina Chuchas, Kathy Dokimos, Maria Higdon, Sandra Kordazakis, Ivana Krstic, Julie Mamalis, Angeliki Mavrikou, Stephanie Raptakis, Pearl Thomas, Toula Zogas-Delis

Fundraisers:

In early July, we began requesting monetary donations and school supplies that would benefit over 100 children attending the Leataata Floyd Elementary School. As you can see in the pictures, we needed 2 cars to deliver the backpacks and school supplies! And your generosity has provided enough funds for children attending a school that will soon be announced.

To date, we have collected $400 for the Orthodox Christian Mission Center (OCMC) during coffee hour. Their work includes addressing immediate needs and fostering lasting spiritual transformation through the work of their ministries. Please visit their website at OCMC.org to learn how your donations transform lives.

In the next few weeks our calendar of events will be available, and we look forward to our challenges that support our church and help those in need. Thank you for your support of Philoptochos.

SACRAMENTO GREEK FESTIVAL

WOW!! Even though we started Festival week with a little rain, we had a wonderful turnout, great weather, and a fantastic 62nd Greek Festival! Our dancers were lovely in their costumes and it brought such a richness to their performances. The foods and pastries were on point! We've heard only positive things; a true testament of our philoxenia.

We extend our deepest and most heartfelt gratitude to each and every volunteer who helped make this year's Greek Festival such a wonderful success. Whether you contributed a shift or the entire weekend, your efforts did not go unnoticed. They were deeply appreciated by our fellow parishioners and warmly received by the larger Sacramento community.

From the kitchen to the dance floor, from the cooking canopies to the raffle booth, from behind the scenes to front & center, from setup to cleanup - you made it all possible.

Below you'll find this year's list of Festival Chairpeople. However, with these chairs are dozens and dozens of volunteers who help execute an extensive variety of tasks; some begin in February and end in November. Others are the weeks leading up to the Festival; others still are weekend only. All are needed; all are truly appreciated.

Thank you to all our Festival sponsors, donors, and underwriters. We greatly appreciate your unwavering support. This list is also found below.

An extra special thank you goes to Fr. Vinnie & Presbyteria Nadia. In their first year of their Festival tenure, they made the rounds, rolled up their sleeves and helped out in a number of booths. So many of our guests loved being greeted by Fr. Vinnie as they entered our festival grounds!

Eternally thankful,

Stefanie Hionis & Chris Georgoulis, 2025 Sac Greek Festival Co-Chairs
